

Mission Statements: What some of the members and friends of Friedens Church are about:

Relay to others the radical love and grace of Jesus Christ; going outside my human boundaries of understanding.

I see my job as a believer as this: To love people into the family of God in such a way that they want to know God, to be obedient to God and follow the way and teaching of Jesus.

I live for learning: learning about people and life so that I can help others and myself fulfill our unique potential.

My mission statement is to share the love and truth of Christ to my friends, family and people I don't know.

My mission statement is to stay on the straight & narrow, and hurt no one either through words, or actions which I hope will influence others to do the same.

I work to make human notions of justice to be closer to the teachings of Jesus in hopes of a more compassionate and forgiving world.

I'm very thankful to be a child of God and appreciate the multitude of blessings he has poured down on me and with his guidance will strive to share my time and gifts with others.

With God's help, I want to be a better Christian.

I am a follower of Christ's love and I strive to nurture the human spirit with compassion, wisdom and humor.

Understanding my own sin, I will follow Christ's example and show His love to others through my choices of forgiveness, unconditional love, and welcoming kindness.

I will run straight toward the goal in order to win the prize which is God's heavenly call through Jesus Christ to the life above.

In my human (imperfect) way the faith of Jesus given to me, works God's grace through me in truth and hope-filled love-relationships, teaching and leading as the Spirit of Jesus leads me.

My personal mission is to continue to be an educator to people of all ages for as long as I am able to do so.

To have a positive attitude and be thankful for the blessings God has given me. I also strive to be a kind, loving, and patient person who helps others when needed.

I am a child of God living so that the life of Christ may shine through me.

I am a disciple of Jesus who influences others by encouragement and example to follow the way of Divine love.
